Homecoming '69

With pride Mr. Deuell, Ass't. Alabama football coach gives Mr. DeVito, our great coach, a big handshake before the battle.

Before the VSD-ASD clash the Homecoming Queen of '69 speaks to the crowd from the middle of the Cardinal playing field.

The Homecoming crowd, which is always large, carefully watchs the strong, tough Cardinals battle against the Warriors of the Alabama School for the Deaf.

STAUNTON, VIRGINIA
STONEWALL JACKSON COUNCIL

"Oops! This flag appears backwards," murmurs Earl Wright, a Boy Scout from Troop 76, while Darlene Inabinett stands on the field singing the national anthem, "The Star-Spangled Banner."

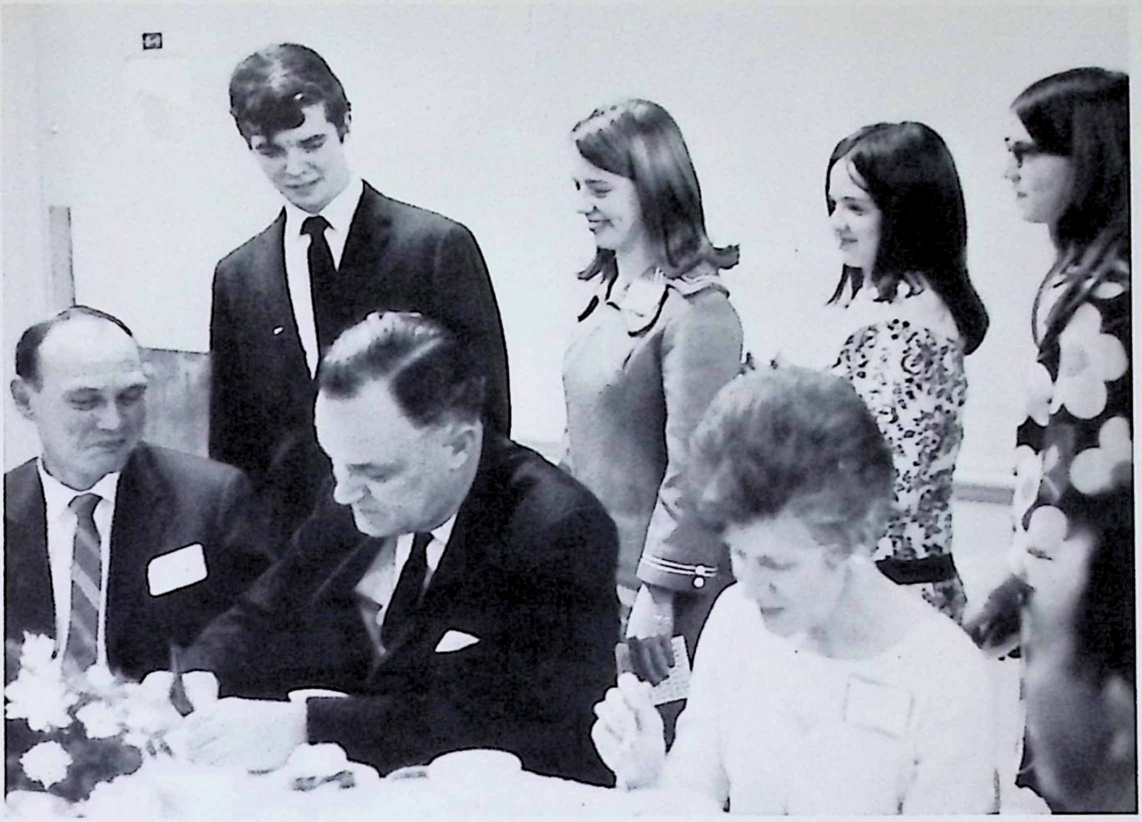
OWER RIGHT: Governor Godwin peaks from the heart while Mr. hipman interprets for him.



Poor Governor Godwin. Many students steal his dinner time to get his autograph.

Here are some more eager beavers for the Governor's autograph and, after the banquet speeches, he was again mobbed by more students for his autograph.

Mr. Edward M. Gallaudet, Steven Burton, discusses the possibility of establishing a college for the Deaf with four U. S. Senators, C. Keen, M. Swinney, R. Craft, and P. Cecil and two deaf students, E. Wright and V. Hall.

Gallaudet day program

President Abraham Lincoln, Ronald Noel, signs the bill establishing Gallaudet College.

Behind closed doors these four Senators discuss the pros and cons of establishing a college for the Deaf.

Gallaudet College has seen many changes since it was founded in 1864, such as size of classes, mode of dress, and the courses offered.

School events

It seems that Stanley Byers is falling asleep while he dances with his date at the Christmas Party.

This Christmas Party was planned by 9th grade classes and they gave us much pleasure and we enjoyed ourselves.

The old farm party

Poor Frances, she is really carrying a load.

These students enjoy dancing with each other at the Old Farm Party, which the Seniors of 70' presented.

Kelly Shortt and Carol Riggs try to burst the balloon, while other students make fun of them.

SPORTS

JV cheerleaders

wo spiritful J. V. cheerleaders, Debra Simons and Debbie Hughes, urge the team to victory.

J. V. cheerleader sponsor Miss Hobson tries to get the cheerleaders to change their formation.

FRONT ROW: K. Snellings, G. Byrd, Captain D. Pike, D. Hughes, 2nd ROW: B. Jones, P. Burke, D. Inabinett, D. Simons

Varsity Cheerleaders

BOTTOM: Despite the low temperature our cheerleaders cheer our team to victory against Central High School in Victoria, Va.

Athletic staff

Mr. William Gibson, Athletic Director, busily phones to the newspapers the results of a previous VSD game.

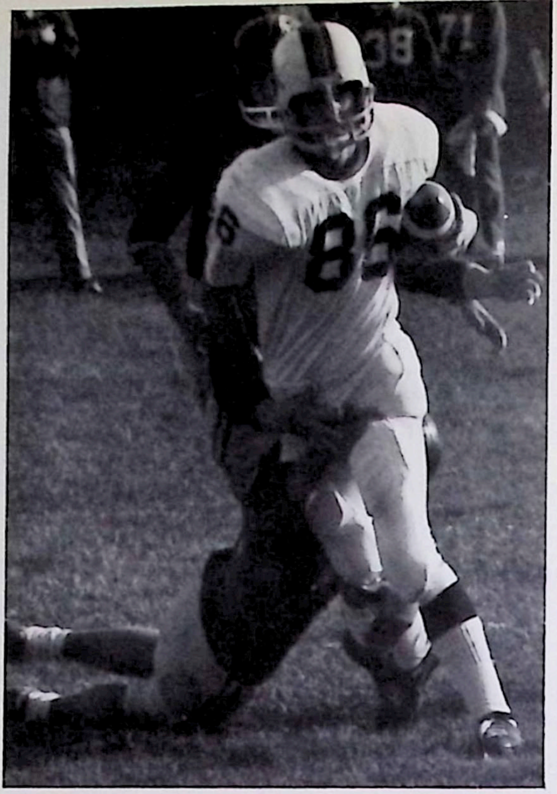
Mr. Rocco DeVito, head football, basketball, and baseball coach, records on his calendar the dates of next year's basketball games.

Mr. Ralph Kiser, J. V. football coach and baseball coach, wonders if VSD can keep the rally going. SURE!!!

Mr. Drake, Assistant J. V. Football Coach, feels the team has improved this year.

Mr. Patterson, Assistant Varsity Football Coach and J. V. Basketball Coach, spends a lot of time studying ways of improving his team.

Mr. Snyder, Track Coach, watches the outcome of the 880 Yard Run.



End Edward Arnold tries to elude the opponent.

While the players watch, Coach Patterson tells them that the opponents are pretty big and they must work harder.

1969 cardinal varsity squad

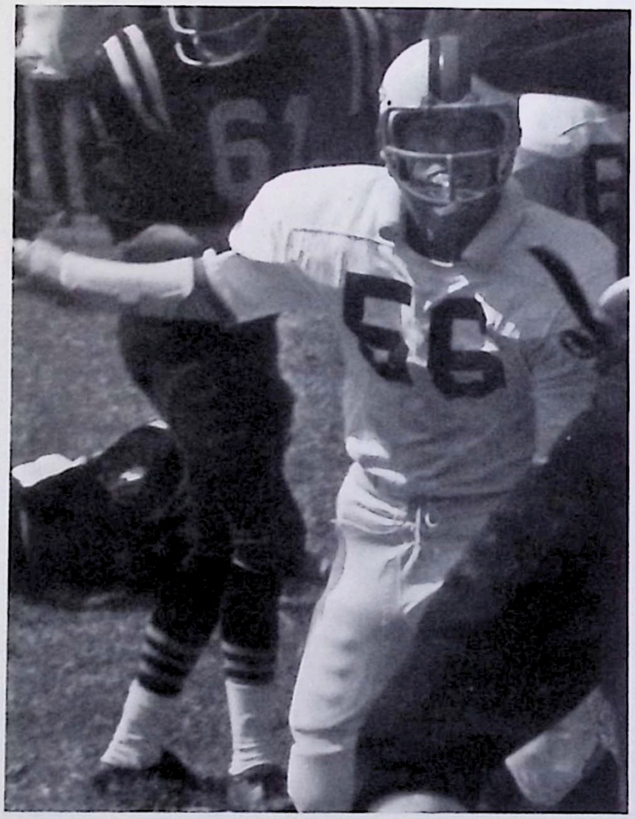
Coach Patterson, Coach DeVito, J. Dunkley, K. Crockett, Manager R. Craft

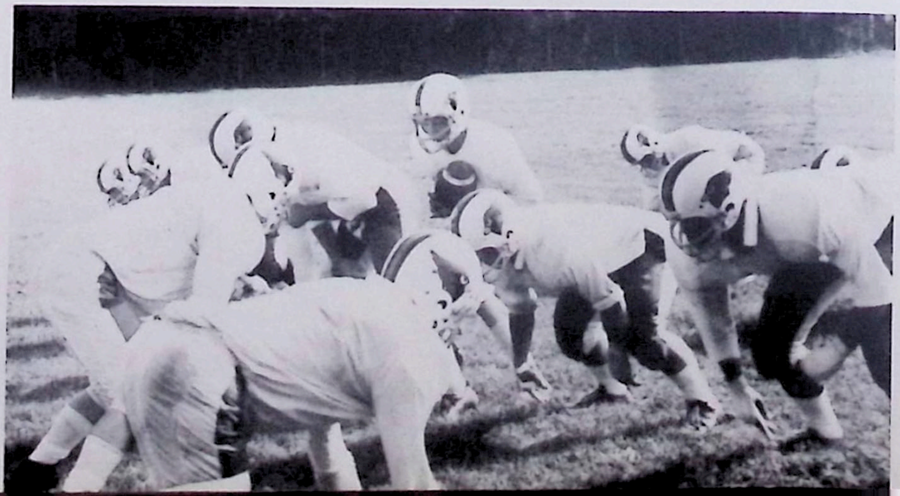
Ronnie Noel makes a spectacular catch and goes in for the touchdown.

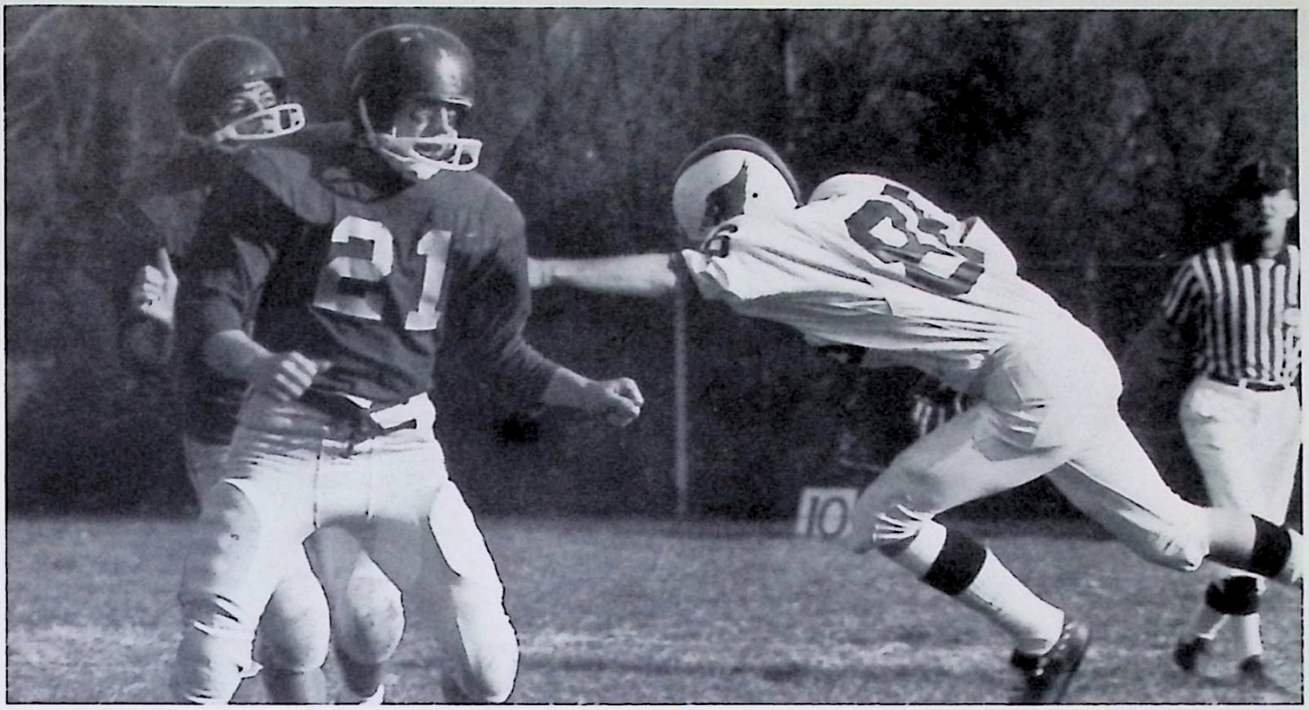
Steven Shrum goes out for a pass with no trouble at all.



Bennie Lacks is one of VSD's aggressive defensive linemen.

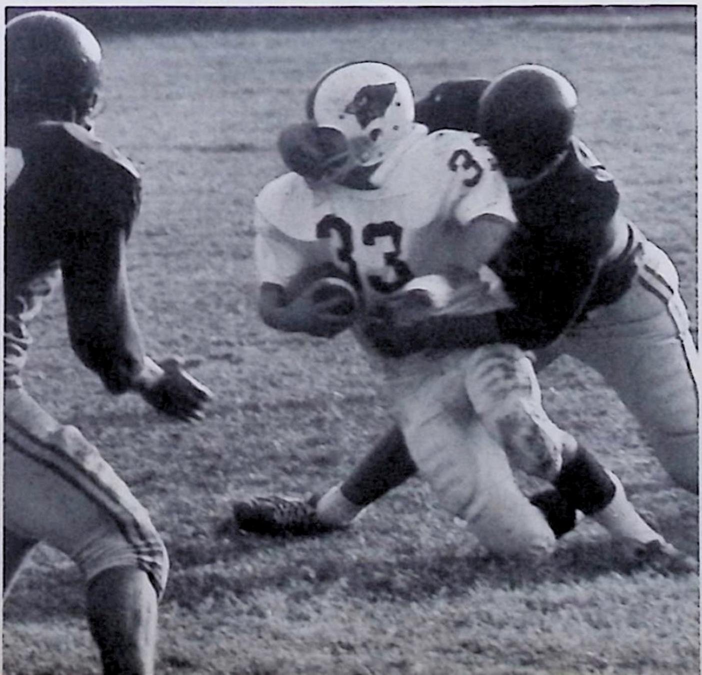
It takes all out teamwork and tough scrimmages for a team to produce a 10-0 record like VSD did this year.





Edward Arnold flies straight down field and tries to fake the opponents.

Lineman Durston Winesburg clobbers the ball carrier for very little gain.



Matthew Searls gains a few yards on this play but this big guy is penalized 15 yards for pulling the face mask.

Jubilant coaches, players, and spectators rejoice in VSD's first undefeated season since 1954.

Bobby Mawyer gains some beautiful yards in the last game against Central in Victoria, Va.

The big central game

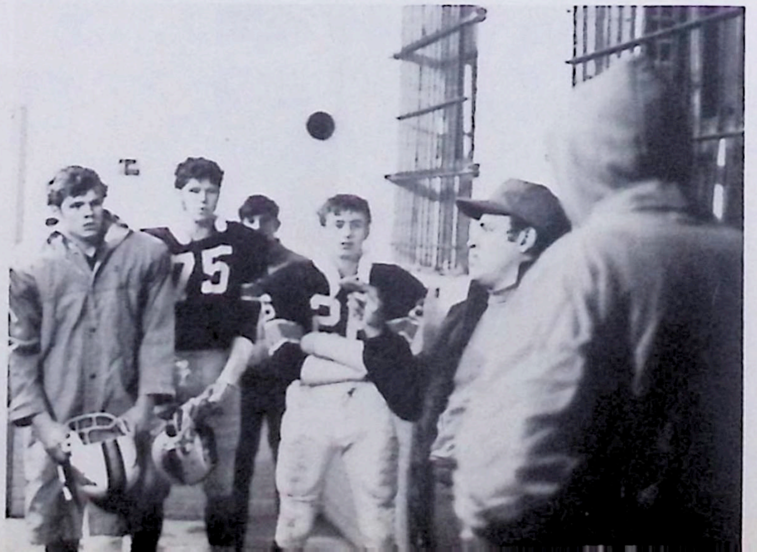
An undefeated season was our goal when we started football in the fall and we finally made it.



During halftime all the boys seriously watch Coach DeVito explain the strategy we will use.

BASEBALL

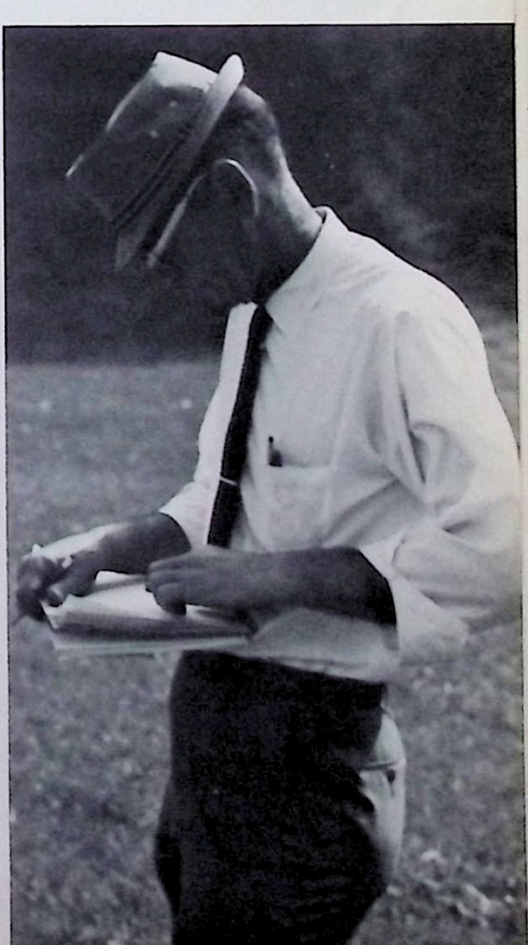
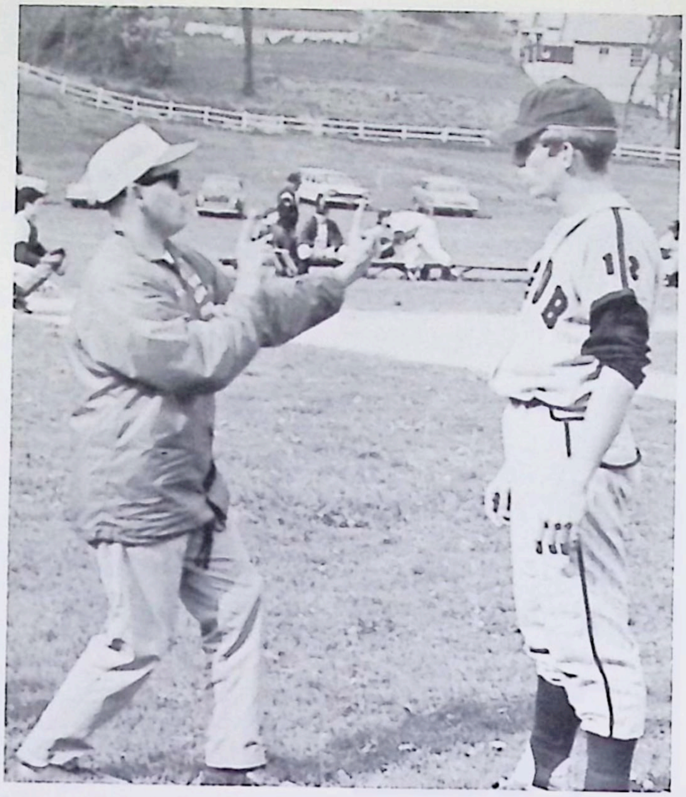
Mr. Kiser, Are those tears of joy?

Mr. Hess, our invaluable statistician, keeps the score at all athletic events.



The team rejoices after Randall Lawson, our pitcher, strikes out another one to retire the sides.



Mr. DeVito tries to explain to Johnny Olinger the proper strategy to use in stealing bases.

Track

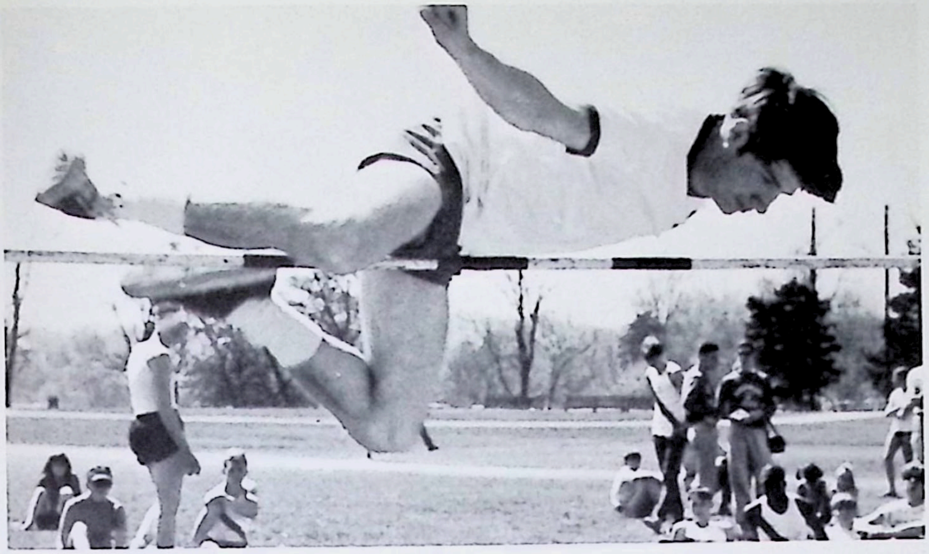
Terry Crisman, No. 15, places 3rd in the 100 yard dash during an invitational meet at SMA.



Steven Shrum, Is this form helping you clear the bar in the high jump?

Sherman Harper, What is the matter with your cannonball? Is it too heavy for you to shoot?

T.S.D. CARDINALS
FOOTBALL

Matthew Searls -- Are you pondering? What about? -- Your sweetheart or how to place 1st.

Boy, have I got a story to tell you!!!

First of all, I hope you like our 1970 White Columns Yearbook and I want to tell you that it takes a lot of time. Our staff worked until we died. Mr. Belcher and Mr. Snyder were letting the developer get the best of them while Miss Westfall cried a lot. Earl Wright pounded holes in the wall; Penney Cecil worked as the layout editor and she kept eating all the paper because she was always hungry; Linda Collins kept turning the tables over. The last one is me. I sat in front of the wall and talked to it and it answered me. We had a problem with Mr. Yoder and Ronnie Noel. They kept swallowing the money.

Seriously though --

This yearbook is much different from the old ones. The theme we selected is "VSD Rocks the Scene." All of the happenings this year we captured were almost perfect for the theme.

In the future you can thumb through this yearbook and think about old school days at VSD. You may be showing your children what you did during one of your best years in school.

I want to take this time to thank Bennie Lacks for helping us at the last minute. Also thanks goes to Joyce Widener, Thelma Davis, Frances Wood, Peggy Barbour, Vicki Hall, and the boys in the Print Shop for printing our pictures. And we, the staff, also want to thank Miss Westfall, Mr. Snyder and Mr. Belcher for spending their time helping us on the yearbook. And thanks goes to Mr. Yoder and Ronnie Noel for banking the money.
